WOMAN'S WONDERFUL WAYS

They are Graphleally Described .-A Synopole of a Letter Delivered by Mrs. Kendall Before the Wumnic's Society.

Boston, Nav. 3 .- A large and refined andience of ladies greeted Mrs. Kendall upon the occasion of her second appearance before a Boston assembla e this afternoon. In intrailucing her lecture the distinguished lady referred to the true position of woman in society, and how her physical condition affects her social and Intellectual standing. Continuing she suid:

"Those who have made careful investigation tell us that heathen wopain than are the women of civilizatloit; but clyibzed woman resent the charge that they are weaker because to see the see that they are weaker because the see that they are the see that the see that the see that they are the see that the se they are civilized. A distinguished writer says: "If the women of civtheatlon are less able to endure than are heathen women, it is a mere accidental circumstance, and one within their control.' When a woman lins health, beauty is to appear, - cves in features once plain. With health und beauty in all their attractiveness a new life dawns, enjoyment hegins, and all the luxurious attendants of a healthy body come forth. The maiden feels the glorious possibilities of life; the mother feels conscious of the grandour of meternity and the joys of a family. The Creator has wished to know if I could in any way aid her. There is no doubt that thousands of women are suffering today from similar troubles, who do not recognize their cause so nearly as this lady did. She felt languid, peevish, restless, blue. She had headache, lackache, vold feet and was sallow; her appetite tickle. 1 knew the cause, and I am happy to state that I was able to afford relief.

No woman is ever seriously sick for any length of time when the blo is mre, and no blood can be immire when the kidneys and liver are in perfect order. I feel it my privilege in Its enjoyment.
